Rosencrantz & Guildenstern Are Dead

by Tom Stoppard

November 14, 16, 17, 18 @ 7:00 PM

November 15 @ 8:00

Alumni Studio Theater

Rosencrantz & Guildenstern Are Dead is the fabulously inventive tale of Hamlet as told from the worm's-eye view of the bewildered Rosencrantz and Guildenstern, two minor characters in Shakespeare's play. In Tom Stoppard's best-known work, this Shakespearean Laurel and Hardy finally get a chance to take the lead role, but do so in a world where echoes of Waiting for Godot resound, where reality and illusion intermix, and where fate leads our two heroes to a tragic but inevitable end.

Hamlet (15 minute version)

30 minutes before Rosencrantz & Guildenstern

Each night before Rosencrantz & Guildenstern Are Dead begins, the ECG Tragedians will present an abridged version of Shakespeare's Hamlet.

E. C. Glass Auditorium

"Her name was Lola. She was a showgirl..."

So begins this tale of romance & stardom that has captivated audiences across the globe. With sensational originality, Copacabana is a show that will leave you breathless. Stephen, a present-day, aspiring songwriter, is in the midst of writing a tune that tells the story of Lola: fresh off the plane from Tulsa, she arrives in New York with showbiz aspirations. Tony is a bartender/composer who falls in love with her and helps her become a Copa girl. Lola, of course, attracts the amorous attentions of Rico. When Rico goes a bit too far by abducting Lola and taking her to his rival nightclub in Havana, Tony and the whole Copacabana crew set off to rescue Lola!

The Matchmaker

Horace Vandergelder, a wealthy merchant in nineteenth-century Yonkers, NY, decides to take a wife and employs a matchmaker, Mrs. Dolly Levi. Dolly subsequently becomes involved with two of Vandergelder's clerks, several lovely ladies, and the headwaiter at an expensive restaurant where this swift farce runs headlong into hilarious complications. After everyone gets straightened out romantically, Vandergelder finds himself affianced to the astute Dolly Levi herself.
